Charity Bazaar Auction List Bid on wonderful items generously donated

Get a bidder number, take a look at the bid sheets, and place your bid. You will see many pages, each with a short description of the item.

If you like an item, simply write your number on the sheet and the amount you want to pay for it. You can bid any amount as long as it is more than what the last person bid. The higher you bid, the more likely you are to win!

Come back as often as you like and bid on as many items as you like. Check the sheets at the end of the auction time 14:30PM. If you have made the highest bid then you buy the item for that amount and take it home with you.

Our promise

The IWCR members seek to raise funds to provide support and financial assistance for charities carefully selected each year. Our primary focus is on helping families, young mothers, the elderly and the abused both in Riga and the Latvian countryside.

By working closely with the management and listening to the staff of these organisations, we aim to provide time, specific items or products which make a real difference to people's day-to-day lives.

Our Sponsors

Our annual Charity Bazaar is sponsored by many companies, embassies and diplomatic missions. The IWCR is very thankful for the extensive support we receive.
